The Division II women's basketball quarterfinals, semifinals and championship games will be played Tuesday, March 21, through Friday, March 24, at Alumni Hall in Columbus, Ohio.

Quarterfinals. Turner Sports Interactive, Inc. (Turner) has elected to exercise its right to distribute the four quarterfinal games at NOON, 2:30 p.m., 6 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Eastern time Tuesday, March 21, via live Internet video streaming on NCAA.com.

Semifinals. Both semifinal games will be exclusively televised on CBS Sports Network at 6 and 8:30 p.m. Eastern time Wednesday, March 22.

Championship. The championship game also will be exclusively televised on CBS Sports Network at 7 p.m. Eastern time Friday, March 24.

[Please Note: No other broadcast network or Internet service may air these championship games or highlights until the Internet video stream or CBS Sports Network (respectively) has gone off the air.]

Broadcast networks / NCAA conference/institution television networks / RSNs and local television stations may use up to three minutes (per newscast) of video footage for up to 72 hours following the game/broadcast. No media entity (commercial or noncommercial) is allowed to display any game video on its website.

If a broadcast entity wishes to license video footage beyond the previously described time period (72 hours), all requests to obtain clips or copies of NCAA championships / events (e.g., game / program records, melt / highlight tapes) need to go through the NCAA / Wazee Digital online footage request system, which can be found at the following website: <http://commerce.wazeedigital.com/license/home.do>.

The NCAA and its primary media partners own all television and digital / Internet video streaming rights to all 90 NCAA championships. The NCAA will award qualified NCAA conference/institution television networks / RSNs and local television stations television rights based on the following criteria:

1. The commercial television rights fee is a MINIMUM of $1,500 per game / per broadcast entity (i.e., per network / station). However, local campus and/or noncommercial television stations may have the rights fee waived.

[Please Note: NCAA conference/institution television networks / RSNs and local television stations selling commercials; selling or airing billboards; sponsorships; in-game graphic sponsors; underwriters; or phone pledges must pay the NCAA a commercial television rights fee.]

2. All game times will be determined by the NCAA in conjunction with the host institution. Game times may be adjusted, at the NCAA's sole discretion, to accommodate broadcast windows for the entity that wishes to acquire these rights to increase the national, regional or local exposure of the Division II Women's Basketball Championship.
3. Television entities awarded television rights must provide the NCAA with satellite coordinates for each game [or broadcast window(s)]. Please email the coordinates and satellite details to Amy Skiles (askiles@ncaa.org) NOT later than 4 p.m. Eastern time, the Wednesday prior to the game.
4. Television entities awarded television rights must strictly adhere to the NCAA's 24-hour Silent Blackout Policy. The only relief that will be granted with this policy is if the host institution has sold out its competition venue.

BLACKOUT POLICY. The NCAA does NOT implement local blackouts for NCAA championships; however, a "silent" blackout may be implemented until 24 hours prior to the start of the televised championship event for regions within a 50-mile radius of the event. A "silent" blackout restricts the television station from announcing that it has obtained the rights or promoting the broadcast on any medium (e.g., newspapers, television, radio, Internet). If the "silent" blackout is broken, the NCAA maintains the right to cancel the broadcast. The blackout policy does NOT apply to Turner, CBS, ESPN or the Golf Channel telecasts.

5. If a television or broadcast entity (i.e., NCAA conference/institution television networks, RSNs, local television stations) is NOT willing to meet the aforementioned criteria, the NCAA broadcast rights will NOT be granted.

Additional Television Rights Criteria That Will Be Considered Are As Follows:

1. Financial package.
2. Coverage area (how many households delivered).
3. Relationship with the institution (e.g., produced five regular-season Division II women's basketball games and 10-Division II women's basketball coaches' shows during the regular season).
4. Production quality (e.g., number of manned cameras, number of videotape replay machines, layout of television production truck, number of announcers, type of graphics looks).
5. Prior bidding in current championship.

6. Live broadcast or tape-delay broadcast.

The NCAA will NOT produce any Division II Women's Basketball Championship games for television syndication. NCAA conference/institution television networks / RSNs and local television stations awarded television or Internet video streaming rights to the game(s) must produce the game(s) at their own expense. In most cases, the NCAA will allow more than two television production trucks into the same facility. The NCAA will work to get multiple television outlets to work together in sharing productions facilities, crew and announcers. In this situation, the multiple television outlets involved must all submit to the NCAA a television rights bid letter.

NCAA conference/institution television networks / RSNs and local television stations awarded syndication rights will be given all local commercial time to sell in accordance with NCAA advertising guidelines. [However, if awarded noncommercial rights, your station may NOT sell commercials; sell or air billboards; sponsorships; in-game graphic sponsorships; underwriters; or phone pledges.] The NCAA reserves the right to keep four 30-second spots for NCAA public service announcements per game. Click [HERE to review the current NCAA Advertising and Promotional Guidelines.]

The NCAA requires a game-record copy and ISO MELT / clean highlights of each game for the NCAA Video Library delivered within four business days after the telecast(s). NCAA conference/institution television networks / RSNs and local television stations must pay for the cost of the dub and the shipping charges to the NCAA. The NCAA will accept masters in any of the following formats: .mov files (quick time); or DIGITAL BETA; DVCAM or HDCAM; DVC Pro HD; or HD-SR tapes. [If your master is on any other format, you must transfer it to one of the aforementioned formats for the NCAA at your expense.] All game-record tapes and ISO MELT tapes should be shipped to the NCAA Video Library:

INTERNET VIDEO STREAMING RIGHTS

In accordance with the NCAA's digital rights agreement with Turner, Turner owns the exclusive rights to stream all NCAA championships live via the Internet, mobile applications, and related devices, except for those championships, which fall under a prior national television and/or digital rights agreement (i.e., CBS, ESPN, Golf Channel).

If Turner elects to exercise its right to distribute an NCAA championship event via live Internet video streaming, NO SECONDARY STREAMING RIGHTS WILL BE GRANTED to university athletics departments, university television networks, student-operated television networks, RSNs / local television networks or other media outlets (collectively, “Third-Parties”).

If Turner elects NOT to exercise its Internet video streaming rights, certain Third Parties MAY REQUEST PERMISSION TO VIDEO STREAM selected NCAA championship events (the “Event Coverage”) from Turner. All requests must be submitted to Turner online at www.ncaa.com/rights-request.

If you are awarded Internet video streaming rights, then you must provide the link to ncaa-desk@turner.com and streaming-rights@ncaa.com NOT later than 4 p.m. Eastern time, the Wednesday prior to the game.

RADIO / INTERNET AUDIO STREAMING RIGHTS

The NCAA championship radio and/or internet audio streaming rights must be obtained from IMG College. All stations broadcasting any round of an NCAA championship shall be required to fill out the “NCAA Championship Radio / Internet streaming Online Form.” [Please Note: the online radio agreement must be entirely completed, including the I.P. address of the audio player if the broadcast is going out via the Internet, and submitted by fax in advance of the round to be broadcast. If the online form is NOT completely filled out, radio / internet audio streaming rights will NOT be granted.] Questions may be directed to IMG College's Mike Dodson (mike.dodson@imgworld.com; 859-226-4390). For questions regarding satellite radio, please contact Nate Flannery (nflannery@ncaa.org) at the NCAA national office. Click [HERE to review the 2016-17 Audio Policy and to access the form.]

The NCAA reserves all rights and final decisions regarding NCAA championships, broadcast rights or related television, Internet video or audio streaming, radio and satellite radio matters.

Thank you for your interest in the 2017 NCAA Division II Women’s Basketball Championship.
