26 through Wednesday, March 29 should be made via email to David Worlock (dworlock@ncaa.org).

Final Four Credentials Will Again Include Photos

However, those who do so may have extended delays in line and longer waits to pick up their credential. You are strongly encouraged to submit a photo during the online application process.

Credential Distribution

All credentials must be claimed in person. Government-issued identification is required and security personnel will check all bags upon entry into the stadium. Approved members of the media may claim credentials at the Glendale Media Center (on the north side of the stadium) at the following times (all times local):

All zones will be designated by the NCAA.
