

SELLING YOUR COLLEGE WORLD SERIES TICKETS

The NCAA Ticket Exchange™ is a safe and easy way to sell your Men's College World Series® tickets if you are unable to attend. The NCAA Ticket Exchange is the only 100% guaranteed, NCAA-approved secondary ticket marketplace. Fans may list their tickets for sale in a safe, anonymous and convenient way, and sell their tickets to other fans through the NCAA Ticket Exchange.

Important Note to Season Ticket Holders: Season tickets can generally be revoked with or without cause. However, with the Men's College World Series lasting almost two weeks, it is understandable that even the most loyal season-ticket holders may not be able to attend every game. The NCAA has provided season-ticket holders with a sanctioned location where they can safely sell tickets that would otherwise go unused. It is important to note that the NCAA Ticket Exchange will be monitored to ensure that season-ticket holders do not abuse this accommodation by selling all, or most, of the allocation of tickets online each year. If a season-ticket holder resells reserved tickets without using the NCAA Ticket Exchange, they risk having their tickets revoked.

1. Visit NCAA.com/Exchange and select the BUY OR SELL TICKETS button next to the NCAA Men's College World Series.
2. Choose the game for which you wish to sell tickets and click on the SELL TICKETS button.
3. LOGIN with your PrimeSport account or REGISTER for a new account.
4. Complete the required ticket information (quantity, section, row and seat numbers).
Please note that if you have paper tickets, you will need to convert them to digital tickets prior to listing them on the NCAA Ticket Exchange. Please see the reverse side for instructions on converting paper tickets to digital.
5. Enter your payment information and Flash Seats login credentials (email address and password).
6. Review and complete your listing. That's it! Your tickets are now posted for sale on the official NCAA Ticket Exchange. You will receive a confirmation email with your listing ID.
